Re: Annual Report: 2013 Public Sector Salary Disclosure

February 27, 2014

To: Chair and Members

Toronto Police Services Board

From: William Blair

Chief of Police

Subject: ANNUAL REPORT: 2013 PUBLIC SECTOR SALARY DISCLOSURE

Recommendation:

It is recommended that the Board receive this report.

Financial Implications:

There are no financial implications relating to the recommendation contained in this report.

Background/Purpose:

The Public Sector Salary Disclosure Act, 1996 (PSSDA) and the Public Sector Salary Disclosure Amendment Act, 2004 were passed to make Ontario's public sector more open and accountable to taxpayers. Therefore, in accordance with the PSSDA, the Toronto Police Service (TPS) is required to disclose the names, positions, salaries and taxable benefits of employees who were paid $100,000 or more in a year. The report includes active, retired and terminated members. This information, which includes Toronto Police Service and Toronto Police Services Board employees, is also submitted to the City of Toronto Pension, Payroll and Employee Benefits Division for inclusion in a corporate report filed, by the City, with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing.

Beginning in 2009, the Ministry of Finance requires that organizations with members seconded to other ministries file the listing of those members with the appropriate ministry. For the 2013 reporting year, TPS had 24 members seconded to the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services. A separate listing of the members appearing on the Public Sector Salary Disclosure listing has been provided to that agency.

Discussion:

The Public Sector Salary Disclosure Act, 1996 defines "Salary Paid" as "the amount paid by the employer to the employee in a given year, as reported on the T4 slip (Box 14 minus Taxable Benefits total)." If this amount is equal to or above $100,000, it must be reported.

The salary paid amount for TPS members includes regular salary, retention pay, acting pay, premium pay (including court time, call backs and overtime) and any retroactive adjustments paid in 2013.

Taxable benefits are reported as a separate line item for those employees who earned $100,000 or more. Taxable benefits for TPS members, as defined by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), include the value of life insurance premiums for coverage provided by the employer, employer-provided parking and employer-provided vehicles. Taxable benefits for employer-provided vehicles are calculated for the non-business related travel for those members assigned a vehicle.

Number of Employees on the 2013 Disclosure Listing (Appendix A – Alphabetic order and Appendix B – Descending order by salary paid):

In 2013, 2,983 employees earned more than $100,000. This total includes 860 employees whose base salary is normally under $100,000. The earnings for these employees were the result of their combined base salary, premium pay and other payouts such as final vacation pay upon termination of employment.

Uniform base salaries have increased over the years due to contract settlements and arbitration awards. Members at the Detective Sergeant/Staff Sergeant (253) and the Detective/Sergeant (912) rank all have base salaries that are above $100,000.

In 2013, salary increases occurred on January 1st and December 1st. The table below shows: the salary ranges for uniform positions with a salary base below $100,000 during 2013; the number of employees in each category at December 31, 2013; and the corresponding number of members appearing on the 2013 PSSD report.

| Category              | Salary ran | ge at | Salary ran | ge at | Employees per | Numbers per |

|                       |            |       |            |       | 2013          |             |
| Plainclothes/Training | $93,862   | to    | $94,847   | to    | 1,112         | 780         |
| Constable             | 101,775    |       | 102,844    |       |               |             |
| Police Constables     | $87,922   | to    | $88,844   | to    | 3,048         | 825         |
|                       | 95,839     |       | 96,846     |       |               |             |

As the table above shows, base salaries for Police Constables are edging towards the $100,000 threshold, which has been in place since 1996. As at January 1, 2014, the upper end of the salary range for Police Constables increased to $98,783 (including retention pay), as a result of the 2011 to 2014 collective agreement increases.

Premium pay is the result of court attendance, overtime earned when members work beyond their regular shift, and call-backs when members are requested to return to work for various operational reasons or special projects. While the TPS has reduced premium pay costs over the last few years, some premium pay (e.g. court time) is unavoidable and increases members earnings. With Police Constables' base salary approaching the $100,000 range, only a small amount of premium pay would need to be earned to put the member over the $100,000 threshold.

Paid Duty Earnings:

Currently, paid duty earnings are exempt from reporting on the PSSD report even though they are reported on a T4.

In the past, the Ministry of Finance has confirmed that since the officers are being paid by the client, the earnings are not considered "salary paid" under the PSSDA. Therefore, members' paid duty earnings have no impact on and are not taken into account in the preparation of the TPS' public sector salary disclosure listing.

Conclusion:

In accordance with the PSSDA, this report provides the names, positions, salaries and taxable benefits of TPS and Board employees who were paid more than $100,000 in 2013. The information is provided in alphabetical order as required by the Ministry, and in salary paid descending order as requested previously by the Board.

The report is provided to the Board for information, and has been forwarded to the City for inclusion in a corporate report filed with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing.

Mr. Tony Veneziano, Chief Administrative Officer, Corporate Services Command, will be in attendance to answer any questions from the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

William Blair, C.O.M. Chief of Police
